

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. XXXVI.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1914.

NUMBER 22

FOSTER.

City Marshal Lloyd was a passenger to Butler Friday.

Henry Briscoe has moved to the Tenbrook farm northwest of town.

Sam Barr of Butler, was a Foster visitor Friday.

O. J. Scribner of the country north of town, was an arrival Friday evening from the West.

Mr. Journey of Washburn, Mo., has been visiting his brother, M. F. Journey, departed for his home Friday noon.

C. G. Weeks was in Foster, shaking hands with old friends the first of last week.

Oat sowing is the order of the day. The farmers are trying to forget the past and getting busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead of Worland attended meeting at Foster Friday evening.

J. A. Link and wife of Hartford, Kansas, were arrivals Tuesday.

J. W. Darby was a passenger to Butler Wednesday.

D. H. Arbogast was a business visitor to Pleasanton, Kansas.

Mrs. Jule Heckadon and daughter, Myrtle, visited relatives in Butler last week.

Mrs. Koster and daughter were passengers east Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Woods March 18th, a girl.

The pie supper given by Miss Mildred Poffenbarger and her pupils, Saturday night, was a decided success. All present enjoyed a fine time. The proceeds amounted to $23 which will go for purposes in their room.

Married at Mound City, Kansas, Miss Myrtle Winchester of this place, to Mr. Earl Demot of Mound City.

Dick Jones was a passenger east Wednesday.

Grover Arbogast and Noah Bright left Thursday for Pittsburg, Kansas.

C. J. Thompson and wife will move to Oklahoma this week, their future home.

Mrs. Mathew Gray is quite poorly at her home in the north part of town.

We imagine we can see Esquire Chamberlain making garden down in his South Missouri home, this nice weather. How is it Squire?

Mrs. Henry Gardner of near Virginia, visited Sunday at the home of her brother, J. E. Neukirk and wife.

Mrs. Myrtle Crow of Butler, came down Sunday and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCollough a few days, after which she will leave for St. Joseph, her future home.

Mrs. Frankenfield and daughter, Minnie, visited with their daughter and sister, Miss Nellie Armstrong of Prescott, Kansas.

John Heckadon and son, Sherman, visited with their uncle, D. H. Arbogast Sunday evening.

A ladies quartett has been organized at the M. E. Church, consisting of Misses Bertha Bailey (alto), Ada Arbogast (tenor), Ruby Gray and Bess Havelly (soprano).

Mhe meeting, conducted by Rev. Stillions, closed Friday night. Much interest prevailed among the little folks as well as the older ones.

Rev. Jenkins preached Sunday morning and evening at the M. E. Church.

Scrogam-McCollough.

Married at Butler, Mo., March 12, 1914, by Probate Judge Henry, Miss Elsie May Scrogam to Mr. Delbert E. McCollough, both of Foster.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Scrogam of this place and is a most amiable young lady.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCollough and is of good habits and industrious.

These young people start out on the matrimonial sea with bright prospects for the future. May their matrimonial voyage be as bright fifty years hence as it is now, is the wish of their many friends. DINAH.

Green View Twinklins.

We are having some fine spring weather again at present.

Mrs. Bessie Clouse visited the Green View school Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Clara Staker and Winnie Wheeler visited Sunday with Miss Mary Whinery of Amoret.

Mrs. J. C. White and Mrs. O. J. Scribner called on Grandma Bright Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Prudence Woodfin and granddaughter, Gladys McHenry, visited with Mrs. Will Nicks Thursday.

They also spent Friday with Mrs. Maude Thomas.

Miss Martha Eick visited for Green View school Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. White visited the home of her mother, Mrs. O. J. Scribner, Thursday afternoon.

Jones and children, Mrs. O. J. Scribner, Mrs. W. T. Briscoe, Miss Luella Steele and Mrs. Bessie Clouse.

Mrs. L. M. May visited with Mrs. Ed Graves Thursday afternoon.

Miss Vera McHenry spent Saturday with Mrs. Annie Gray.

Miss Minnie Goodenough visited with Grandma Woodfin the last part of the week.

Ed Graves was a caller in Hume Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Farrell of Hume visited with her mother, Mrs. Mary Bright, Thursday.

O. J. Scribner spent a few days last week with his wife and family. He returned again Monday to Northern Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Orear and son, Ross, spent Sunday with Robert Orear and family.

John Briscoe spent Sunday with Pleasant and Dewitt Shelton in Foster.

The farmers are busy sowing oats in this vicinity at this writing.

Miss Laura Bolin spent Saturday with her pupil, Mollie Graves.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee and family and Mr. and Mrs. Will Shepherd were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jones Sunday.

Henry Briscoe of Foster is moving on the Tenbrook farm, more commonly known as the Moore farm.

Mrs. Maude Thomas is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Prudence Woodfin, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laughlin spent Sunday with Fred Laughlin.

TWO CHUMS.

Mt. Zion Gleanings.

We are having fine weather at present.

Mrs. Chas. Rankin visited friends in Hume Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Rosa Wagner called on Chas. Blevins Thursday.

Mrs. Ned Redlinger and Mrs. H. Mullies were guests of Mrs. G. L. Brayton Thursday.

Don't forget the pie supper to be given at Mt. Zion next Friday night, March 24th. You can't afford to miss it.

it. "Ma Sweet and large family" will be there to entertain you.

Mrs. Chas. Rankin and son Charlie were in Worland shopping Friday.

B. S. Hess called on G. L. Brayton Friday.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are busy sowing oats.

Mr. and Mrs. Cayet Mullies were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Adams Sunday.

John Reid came from Illinois, Sunday, to visit at the home of Geo. Bobo.

Mr. Harris was in Pleasanton on business Tuesday.

Miss Connie Rankin, who has been visiting relatives in Oklahoma, returned to her home Wednesday of last week.

Messrs. Stanley and Charlie Brayton called on Clyde Brayton Sunday.

Miss Ruth Myers called on Miss Connie Rankin Thursday evening.

Miss Iva Ayres visited home folks Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bessie Adams was a guest of Miss Dessie Bobo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Myres and children, Ruth, Frank and Marguerette, called on Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Sunday.

Mrs. G. L. Brayton and daughter Bessie were guests of Mrs. Chas. Rankin Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Myres were in Amoret on business Saturday.

Misses Iva Ayres and Connie Rankin were guests of Miss Ruth Myers Friday evening.

Willie Foster was shopping in Worland Saturday.

Pete Garwood and children were guests of Charles Garwood Sunday.

Charles Garwood and grandson, Clarence, were in Foster Saturday.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are sowing oats.

Mulberry and Western Bates.

Mrs. Eke Taute, daughters Tena and Ida, and son Girard, visited Mrs. John Phebbes Friday.

Claude Morwood drove over to Butler Sunday in his car and brought his little brother Stanley, Buddie Lewis, and the Misses Marvel Fain and Virgil Payne back with him.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bohlken, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Dykman, daughter Minnie and son George, were guests at the George B. Bohlken home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Bohlken, daughters Minnie and Fanny, spent Sunday at Will and Chris Meints.

Stella Nichols came down from Lyle Friday evening for a short visit with home folks.

A. J. Meints and family visited at Fred Meints Sunday.

Eke Taute and family spent Sunday at J. H. Leiner's.

Look out for a wedding before Good Friday. Another Bates county girl going to Kansas. Say boys wake up or you may get into the bachelor club.

Mr. and George Thompson were guests at the W. J. Bard home Sunday.

Finney Phibbs is helping Eke Taute with his spring work.

Claude Morwood is building a new barn on his farm west of the Mulberry school house.

We are glad that "Johnny" of Elkhart, is able to push the pencil again. Hope the rush of spring work will not keep him from rustling news.

Miss Inez Beck visited at the W. F. Stilwell home Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. J. Bard and daughter, Anna, visited Mrs. H. H. Gardner.

Mrs. John Dykman is reported on the sick list.

Frank Hennon is building a cement silo.

Charley Weller is working for Wm. Westover.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leiner were callers at Harlan Porter's Sunday.

Ed. Meintz was a guest at R. L. Nichols Sunday.

Saturday evening a jolly crowd of young people went to the home of Miss Lillian Reed and reminded her that it was her sixteenth birthday.

The evening was spent in games and light refreshments were served. At a late hour they all left for their homes, wishing her many happy return of the day.

RAMBLER.

Elkhart

Well, we have been having some fine weather. The farmers are sowing oats and planting potatoes and the farmers wives are talking garden and setting hens.

Now boys, watch out; there is going to be another wedding soon. Have your bells ready.

Col. Lockridge and wife visited at C. B. Henderson one day last week.

Miss Euphie Scott was trading in Amsteadam last Saturday.

D. Fritts was out to Amsteadam in his big wagon last Saturday.

C. E. Crumley had a wreck with his car by turning it over one day last week. It damaged the car some, but C. E. came out on top.

C. B. Henderson and wife, Mon Gregory and wife spent last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Alice Keeton.

George Lockridge and wife took in the dance at Judge Hedger's last Saturday night.

Jim Turner and Frank Smith of Amsteadam, took in the sights at the county seat last Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Bailey and daughter were trading in Amsteadam Saturday.

We hear it reported that Pearl Fritts was married a few days ago. She lives in Larnard, Kansas.

The spelling match was pulled off at Lone Star last Friday night.

Miss Myrtle Spillman and her best fellow took in the dance at Judge Hedger's last Saturday night.

Miss Goldie Fritts and her best fellow called at Alice Keeton's last Saturday night.

Arthur Westover has seed oats for sale at 54 cents per bushel.

Will Furgerson and wife of Burdette, spent last Sunday at Arthur Westover's.

There will be a protracted meeting commence on the 23d at Mt. Vernon school house.

George Cowley attended preaching at Mt. Vernon Sunday.

Miss Cora Spillman visited at her mother's last week. JOHNNY.

Buy enough for a year ahead from Black & Arnold during sale.

ON THE WING.

Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Braden called on Mrs. Smiser Friday afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry French a fine boy March 12.

Mr. Kinion has purchased a new buggy.

Meritt Pickett visited at Aaron Crumley's Sunday.

Mrs. Duncan and children visited with her sister, Mrs. Peterson, Sunday.

A surprise party was given Marion Hedger in honor of his 28th birthday.

Mrs. Luella Denning left Saturday to join her husband in Montana.

Sowing oats is the order of the day.

Mr. Rester Smith has moved to El Dorado Springs. Geo. Roback will move on the place vacated by Mr. Smith.

Geo. Jackson has seed oats for sale at 50 cents per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hockett traded in Virginia Monday.

Mrs. Jackson and sister, Mrs. Stella Zinn and Mrs. Lizzie Porter visited at the home of Grandma Minton.

Ike Dawson moved into his new home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hughes are on the sick list.

Father and Son Await Trial for Murder of Woman.

Mrs. Gill Siler was killed in a battle with her father-in-law and his son while trying to collect her husband's share of an estate in Cotter, Ark., March 12. Hayes Siler and his son are now awaiting action of the Grand Jury in connection with the death of Mrs. Gill Siler, wife of another son of Hayes Siler.

Mrs. Siler was killed in a battle with the members of Hayes Siler's family when she attempted to collect her husband's share of a Siler estate. She had taken refuge in an out-house on the Siler farm and when she attempted to escape was shot.

Mrs. Siler was born and raised in this neighborhood, and was the daughter of Ben Watkins, an old resident of this place.

The League social at Mrs. Henry Oldham last Wednesday night was well attended and all had a jolly good time.

Mrs. George Pahlman entertained the Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon. There were thirty in number and all enjoyed themselves. Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake. N. M. N.

In an Around Maysburg.

Rev. Smith filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

There was quite a large crowd attended Sunday School at the Christian church Sunday. Let's try to continue thus.

Some of Mr. Getz's relatives visited him over Sunday.

Sterling Harness went home with Charley Robinson after Sunday School.

Andy Doll finished up sowing oats Saturday.

Mrs. Clary spent a few days with her mother last week.

Miss Flossie Coonrod visited home folks over Sunday.

Mr. Hook came out from Appleton City Sunday to see how his farm was looking.

Harve Harness and family, Tan White and family visited Cordia Simpson after Sunday School. Mrs. Simpson's mother and father were there also.

Fred Zimmer went to Butler Saturday to visit relatives returning Sunday evening.

The Hackler School had their Society Friday afternoon. There was quite a number of visitors present and listened to a very interesting program.

Tan White and Sam Staton put the new pump in the well at the school house Friday afternoon.

There will be lots of oats sowed the coming week if it does not rain.

Some have made garden all ready. Some have garden growing.

Tan White, Sam Farmer, R. K. Godwin, George Getz and others in this neighborhood sowed oats Monday.

Mr. Clark and wife and Mr. Cox and wife went home with K. K. Godwin from church Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie and Gertie Harness visited Mrs. Icie Hibbs Monday afternoon.

Mr. Workman expects to move down near Foster about Thursday.

Phelix Hendrixson and family visited Albert Edrington Sunday.

A NEIGHBOR.

Have a few farms in the corn belt in Iowa to trade for Bates county farms. Phone or write me and I will see you personally and let you know. I charge 24 per cent commission if I get you a sale or trade, any other farm. Chas. E. Bowman, Amoret, Mo.

Clothiers for all Men

Young Men Especially

A man is known by the company he keeps—a store by the merchandise it handles. We are just as careful in choosing our merchandise as you are in choosing your friends. If you haven't met, let us introduce to you

Kuppenheimer
Fine Clothes
$15.00 to $25.00

Style Plus Clothes
$17.00

The New Spring Garments are distinguished in style and make from clothes of previous seasons. Take our "tip" and see our clothes before you buy.

Extra Special!

$2.50 and $2.00 Hats at.....98c
$15.00 Suits, heavy weights.....$9.50
$2.00 Men's Trousers at.....$1.25
50c Work Shirts at.....35c

Extra Special!

Extra good Work Shoes.....$2.00
$1.75 Boys Shoes.....$1.25
10c Sox at.....8c
$3.50 Suit Cases.....$2.50

Sam'l Levy Mercantile Company

WE SELL SATISFACTORY MERCHANDISE

